12 RESOLUTION R88-54
13

14 A resolution proclaiming Saturday, October 22, 1988, as
15 "Recycling Awareness Day".
16

17 WHEREAS, the Parish of St. Tammany is facing critical
18 problems in disposing its solid waste in an environmentally safe
19 and cost effective manner; and
20
21

22 WHEREAS, sever new government restrictions on landfills
23 and public opposition to incinerators have raised new interest in 24 recycling as at least part of the solid waste solution; and
25
26
27

28 WHEREAS, P.A.R.C. (Ponchartrain Area Recycling
29 Conference) has organized as a civic effort involving nineteen
30 (19) area organizations to educate the public on the merits of
31 recycling and to promote public awareness and community involvement
32 on the issue of waste management; and
33
34
35
36
37

38 WHEREAS, P.A.R.C. is sponsoring an event to offer safe
39 and ecologically effective solutions to waste reduction and re-
40 use through recycling; and;
41
42
43
44

45 WHEREAS, the message of the conference is aimed at the 46 average consumer, and our young people and, therefore, is free to 47 the public; and
48
49

50 WHEREAS, each citizen of the Parish is part of the 51 problem in contributing to the waste stream and, therefore, should 52 be part of the solution.
53
54
55

56 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Slidell City
57 Council supports the intentions of the conference and proclaims
58 Saturday, October 22, 1988, as "Recycling Awareness Day".
