16 RESOLUTION R89-22
17

18
19 WHEREAS, the City of Slidell is mandated (by Louisiana
20 Law Statute) to maintain fiscal solvency in the Utility Fund; and 21

23 WHEREAS, the City of Slidell is increasing the water
24 rates effective on July 5 billings to insure the Utility Fund is 25 solvent; and
26
27

28
29 WHEREAS, the City of Slidell is treating the City Water
30 system in compliance with Environmental Protection Agency's current 31 and future directives on disinfecting municipal water systems to 32 prevent intrusion of bacteria and other onerous matters; and
33
34

35 WHEREAS, all engineering reports advise we regulate,
36
37 adapt and improve our present system to ensure uniform injection of 38 appropriate chemicals to prevent smell, discoloration and taste.
39
40

41 NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Slidell City
42 Council in legal session convened hereby recommends that the 43 Administration develop an implementing plan towards solving the 44 deficiencies noted above and set aside $100,000 for this purpose
45 from the recently passed $1,100,000 Water Bond Issue.
