

RESOLUTION R93-33

A resolution providing for the manner in which members will be appointed to City Council Boards and Commissions.

WHEREAS, the Slidell City Council makes appointments to the Ethics Board, the Board of Zoning Adjustments, and the Planning and Zoning Commission; and

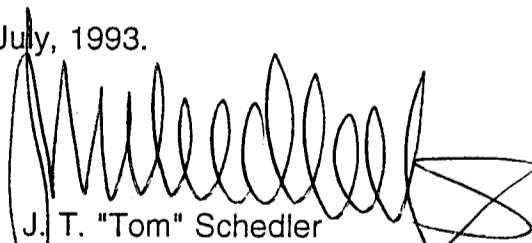

WHEREAS, the Board of Zoning Adjustments and the Planning and Zoning Commission have seven (7) members with a preference given to each councilmanic district; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Ethics is composed of nine (9) members; and

WHEREAS, each district council member has traditionally appointed one member to each board, and at-large council members have appointment one member to the Ethics Board.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Slidell City Council that it does hereby provide each district council member with a preference of ninety (90) days to fill vacancies on the Slidell Ethics Board, the Board of Zoning Adjustment, and the Planning and Zoning Commission, and further provides At-Large Council Members a preference of ninety (90) days to fill Ethics Board appointments, and thereafter nominations may be submitted by any Council Member, with preferences given to councilmanic districts.

ADOPTED this 13th day of July, 1993.

J. T. "Tom" Schedler
Councilman, District F
